

SIM Australia is part of a dynamic team of men and women from all over the world committed to making Christ known.

With around 4000 currently active workers working in nearly 70 countries, SIM is as diverse as the people we serve.

We facilitate missionaries from anywhere to everywhere in a diverse range of ministries, to reach the unreached with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and partner with local churches to evangelise, disciple and share the love of Christ.

About David, Janenne & Rachel

We had been interested in serving in cross-cultural missions for many years prior to joining SIM. Over the previous decade we went on many short term mission trips, to places such as the Philippines, Mexico, Cambodia and Hong Kong. God has now called us to serve long term in South Africa, where we are sharing Jesus' love with orphaned and abandoned children.

Ministry Focus

We desire to serve together as a family, helping children who have lost their families due to the HIV and AIDS pandemic which has had such a devastating impact in South Africa. We have been at iKhetelo Children's Village since 2015, where we are raising vulnerable children to wholeness. With God's help, we nurture these children with Christ's unconditional love.
